OUR SUPERINTENDENT

R. LEFFEL, our superintendent, is a man of common sense first of all and uncommon sense second of all. He has a feeling of kindness and love toward the students of the schools which has made him beloved by all the youngsters of the town. He is a big daddy to all of them and they are always pleased to meet him. He is liked by the teachers, who have tried to show their appreciation of his efforts to make the schools better by a hearty co-operation in all the plans which he has for running the schools. Through extension work and through his attendance at the N. E. A. and other organizations he has always endeavored to keep abreast or ahead of the times on school matters. His management of the schools during the last twelve or thirteen years has been satisfactory to the great majority of the patrons of the schools, and to the citizens of Warsaw.

Since Mr. Leffel took charge of the schools a great deal of progress has been made. Central school was new on his arrival. A new east ward building was built. All of the buildings have been remodelled more or less and today are in better shape than ever before. Much care and attention has been given to the beautifying of the grounds, especially at the central building. Vocational courses have been put into the high school, a full and complete commercial course is now offered, and physical training for all students is now possible. Through exhibits throughout the year and especially at the end of the year the citizens have been given an opportunity to see the work done in the schools and to see the work accomplished in physical training. The latter exhibit will be in the new armory this year.

Mr. Leffel, with all the others interested in the Warsaw schools, looks forward to still greater things in this community. It is only a question of time until we must have a new high school building built on modern plans with ample provisions made for science laboratories, gymnasiums and shop work. Boys and girls compelled to attend school until they are sixteen years of age must be given something to do besides book work. The training of the hands to do useful work has become more of an established principle now than ever before, for most of our graduates never attend college. Just what will be done in Warsaw nobody knows, but whatever is done will in all probability be done right for we can trust in our superintendent and our faithful School Board.

By One of the Staff.

Education and Democracy

LOREN CHASTAIN
Principal

The greatest service that Warsaw High School can perform is to give academic courses, vocational courses and extra curricula activities so integrated that her graduates can take their places as intelligent citizens in a democracy. The underlying purpose of all courses in the regular curriculum is to impart that knowledge which will aid the individual to form his judgments, and solve his own problems intelligently. The problems of a democracy arise from the people and must be solved by the people. Consequently we must have universal education in a democracy.

In a true democracy free people co-operate in a friendly spirit for the advancement of all. All are loyal to the common ideals. Positions are awarded to those who best can serve, and each individual finds that place for which he is best suited. The basic idea back of the great number of extra curricula activities in our high school is to give our students practice in working together in a spirit of friendliness and loyalty for the advancement of common ideals. The student who whole-heartedly takes his place in some school activity and to the best of his ability promotes that activity and its ideals is gaining experience and receiving training which will better him to become a good citizen in a democracy.

ACHIEVEMENT

ABILITY

ATTITUDE

The honor society of Warsaw High, the Tri-Alpha, is composed of the ten members of the graduating class whom the faculty believe to have achieved the most, to possess the greatest ability in school work, and to have maintained the finest attitude toward the school. Of the exceptional class of 1928 the following members were chosen:

MARGARET BARR

JUANITA FAWLEY

ALBERTA JAY

GENITA SMITH

MARIE DEDERICK

LUCILE COYLE

RALPH McCARTHY

JOHN SNELL

LUCRECE SHOEMAKER

MARY RIPPEY

He who would win his cause, with power must frame
Points of support, and look with steady aim;
Attack the weak, defend the strong with art,
Strike but few blows, but strike them to the heart;
All scattered fires but end in smoke and noise,
The scorn of men, the idle play of boys.
Keep, then, this first great precept ever near,
Short by your speech, your matter strong and clear,
Ernest your manner, warm and rich your style,
Sweet in taste, yet full of grace the while;
So may you reach the loftiest heights of fame,
And leave, when life is past, a deathless name.

—JOSEPH STORY, Chief Justice, U. S. A.

Roll of Honor

In the whirl and glare of football, basketball, track and other activities we are apt to lose sight of those students whose inclinations are normally along the lines of study and who are found with their lessons at hand on coming to class. They may never be awarded any sweaters and they may not have their names much in the public eye, but they deserve a great deal of credit for being the backbone of Warsaw High so far as scholarship goes. And so we herewith subscribe a list of students who deserve honorable mention for their school work done during the school year of 1928-29.

LITERARY

Class History

Warsaw, Indiana, April 30, 1929.

DEAR JUANITA:

It is almost time for graduation and I can hardly wait. I am supposed to write a class history, but they are so difficult I hate to tackle the job.

We have a wonderful class; perhaps you'd like to hear a little about us. There were ninety-four of us when we were Freshmen and that's pretty good sized. Our officers were President, Leonard Helser; Vice President, Bernice Anglin; Secretary, Louis Breeding, and Treasurer, Elizabeth Thompson. A number of us were in the operetta "Once in a Blue Moon" that year, which was presented by the Glee Club. Some of our boys (they weren't old enough to be "men") were out for football and basketball. We were put on various committees and that helped us feel more grown up. Our professors that year were Herrick, Barton, Nye, Moss, Stewart, Thorn, Heath, Thrift, Jacques, Marshall and Weinsheimer.

After a three months' vacation we entered high school as Sophomores. We really did feel our importance after a year of being underlings. Our class officers were Joe Johnson, Alice Woodling, Ethelyn Ker and Virginia Holbrook who proved very capable. Quite a large number of our boys were out for football and basketball. The coach believed we were furnishing the team good material. We made a fine showing in basketball that year. The girls were also getting interested in basketball and four or five made the squad. Some of our number got speaking parts in the operetta that year, "The Belle of Barcelona." Two of our class made the quartette which spoke highly of their talent. We were placed on all sorts of committees and were looking forward to the day when we should be on that one called the Reception Committee. We had several new professors that year, Allen, Sharp, Edgington, Fisher and Jenner.

We had a lovely picnic at the Waco and had a very good time. Already some of our girls were beginning to cast their eyes out of our Sophomore fold at young male "specimens."

We entered high school in the fall full of hopes and expectations as Juniors. We could now look upon our Freshmen year as a memory and sort of a pleasant nightmare. Our class officers were Vernon Van Dyke, Elizabeth Thompson, Helen Edgar and Don Schade, and they had a hard year ahead of them. Concession committees were chosen for both football and basketball and we had large profits at the end of the season. One of our Juniors, Chet Bolinger, was captain of the basketball team and we gave good players to the football team. Vernon Van Dyke made us proud of him in debate and in typewriting. We presented our class play, "The Youngest," which was a great success. Next came preparation for the Junior-Senior reception at the Masonic Temple. It was a worry but was worth the effort. The Seniors praised us to the skies and voted it the best ever. The Junior-Senior picnic at Lake Manitou was a knock-out. All these events concluded our Junior year.

How strange after our three years of yearning to really be in those coveted Senior seats in the sun. There are now eighty-three of us. We have

A TRIBUTE

Of cold senseless stone are your ancient walls fashioned,
 And senseless the walnut, the pine, and the clay
 That went in your making. You frown with darkness;
 Your windows throw back the reflection of day.

No heart to impassion; no soul to enoble!
 But—standing—a symbol that never shall die,
 Till manly ambition and earthly endeavor
 Shall fail in their effort to make us a sky.

A sky for our world; a thing to look up to!
 And that is the symbol I think you to be,
 Yearly you send out a bit of your spirit,
 Making them workers and making them free.

Making them free, not a slave to opinion
 Out in the the world that they thought was so fine.
 Yes, and they'll think of you once in a great while,
 Missing the rules that once held them in line .

Working and earning; struggling and saving!
 Suddenly finding it true,
 They would trade the world and its coin for the pleasure
 They plucked from the heart of you!

—BAUER.

lost some of our old students and some new ones are here in their place. We elected our class officers with great care. They are Vernon Van Dyke, re-elected president; Bill Collisson, Wilbur Smith and Mildred Chapman. The Tiger staff was elected and immediately went to work. Again we made a good showing in debate. Football and basketball were peppy and we won many games.

We are looking forward to the reception to be given us by the Juniors. Graduation is not far away and we have our plans yet to make for commencement and baccalaureate, which will keep us busy. We will all cherish our memories of the class of '29, our happiness and good times even though we all scatter to different places.

Here's hoping you can come to see our commencement exercises.

Yours,

HELEN EDGAR.

Class Prophecy

The giant tri-motored plane was winging its way across the turbulent Atlantic.

As I lifted my eyes from the novel I was reading, I saw, in the chair at the front of the cabin, one of my old pals, Elizabeth Thompson, who had become world renowned as a mind reader and prophet. Of course I went over to her.

After an enthusiastic greeting, we began to talk over old times.

Imagine my surprise when Elizabeth brought from her traveling bag a little instrument which she explained would show what any person was doing providing you could tune in the wave length of that person's eyebrow.

As she delicately adjusted the small dials, the following pictures passed before our eyes:

Clarence Tillman is in British Congo teaching the natives to chew gum.

Allen Turner is in Chile trying to cure sleeping sickness which he developed some twenty years ago in High School.

Sarah Gilworth and Ethelyn Ker have married their Greensburg Bills. Their worries are not over, however, for they are still taking "bills."

Leonard Helser has become the fearless leader of a dangerous Chicago gang.

Ruth McCarter is at the head of a famous manufacturing concern dealing in artificial manes and tails for hobby horses.

William Henry Beed Collisson is out counting the grains of sand in the Sahara.

Syble Saterlee has won world fame by her drama "Saterlee Nite."

Marshall Kirk is in New York drawing criticism.

Bernice Anglin is making use of her angling ways fishing in the trout streams of Wisconsin.

Bob Sipes has won fame in the square circle by his pugilistic promises having the distinction of being the only champion to win all his battles on fouts.

Marguerite Fowler has become the happy bride of Ronald Sand.

Marjorie Cook was left a million dollars by an admirer. She is on a cruise of the Mediterranean. There are among her party three former Warsaw High students. They are Wayne McCleary, Pauline Jordan and Owen Emerick.

Hershel Johnston is Professor of English at Beaver Dam.

Frances Denney is champion flag pole sitter of Kosciusko County.

Vernon VanDyke is a retired business man living at Winona Lake. He collected his fortune by cow operation.

Ethel Gross has recently completed her book entitled "Whither Womanhood."

Last year Margaret Clover and Alice Woodling won a talking contest held at London.

Gladys Kincaide is in the foreign mission field in China.

Prof. William McDonald Schade is making a collection of condensed milk cans left in the Antarctic by explorers.

Harriett McCarter and Elizabeth Huffer are working on the difficult problem of proving that automobiles are dangerous.

Thomas Braddock and Louis Breeding have become very wealthy because of their likeness to Mutt and Jeff.

Helen Hankins is playing "Catherine" in the "Taming of the Shrew."

Jake Menzie is searching the African jungles for a "white elephant." Helen Edgar, his wife, is accompanying him.

Frederick Hillegas and Melvin Kelly are giving demonstrations of the concentration of the mind. While Mr. Kelly plays the piano, Mr. Hillegas keeps time on the typewriter, at the same time reading aloud from another copy.

Leo Valentine and wife, Lois Shock, send their Valentines to school every day.

Dangerous Dan Berlin known by hunters, trappers, gunmen, etc., as "Daniel Boone," is hunting in South America. He is hunting for "A" excuse.

Fred Hall has accepted a position as strong man and champion steel rail bender in Ringling Bros.' Circus. His wife, Doris Lambert, has taken the prize for America's broadest smile.

Esther Miller, Elvira Hartsook, Esther Bales and Frances Trumbull have gone to live in Paraguay because no one works there.

Earl Fousnought is earning a dollar a day cleaning lamp posts in Dutch Town. On Sunday he preaches at the Progressive Brethren Church there.

Donald Seerist and Arthur Smith have perfected a mechanical man which will even think for them.

Chester Bolinger is serving a six months' sentence for attempted murder. He was caught killing time.

Jack Ferguson, master of fencing, recently made a trip to Silver Lake. He was asked, while there, by one of the native sons, how much he charged to put up one.

Cecil Spencer and Clifford Sterling were united in marriage several years ago. They are collecting a set of Sterling.

Jack Whiteneck is now in Hollywood doubling for John Gilbert in Mack Sennet comedies.

Rebecca Wilt, Marjorie Moon and Helen Jontz have made fortunes endorsing "Grandpa's Wonder Soap." They claim it keeps their hair in wonderful condition.

Charles Wagner is a patient at Dr. Sliceum's Clinic where he was taken suffering severe injuries sustained while making the famous "Old Gold" blindfold cigarette test. He put the wrong end in his mouth.

Beatrice Davis and Crystal Davis have won the Davis cup, thus bringing the polo championship back to the U. S.

Ethel Wade is teaching in Pierceton High School.

Helen Sawdon is singing in grand opera.

Doris Arnold has become a coal dealer in the Arctic Regions. She reports a thriving business.

Dale Bauer was making a scientific experiment transferring blood to a stalk of celery in order to produce artificial rhubarb.

Cary Groninger has emerged victorious from the 1935 annual international ping-pong contest.

Marie Diehl is playing the oboe in Paul Whitman's Orchestra.

Bernard Edgington has made good as a hypnotist on the Keith Circuit.

It is revealed that the famous French Beauty, Countess de Whoopee, is none other than the former Miss Pearl Husong of Warsaw.

Mildred Chapman is staff yodler at station KDKA Pittsburg.

Marjorie Kintzel had broken the record of 526 handsprings in 10 minutes. She made 526½.

Wilbur Smith is raising bumblebees. When they are full grown he removes the stingers and sells them for phonograph needles.

Martha Lehew has become first lady of the land, having married the President, Mr. Devoy Snyder.

Esther Schrom was so completely hypnotized by the famous hypnotist, Mr. Edington, that she married him before she came out of it.

Ethna Scott is doing home missionary work at Lakeside Park.

Betty Cole is at the head of the Cole School for Girls, near Boston.

Don Deaton is Professor Ethics at John Hopkins University.

"Well," I said after a moment, "It wasn't such a bad class after all, was it?"

"Not at all," said Elizabeth.

"And where are you headed for," I asked her.

"Paris," she answered, "I have a stage engagement there. And you?"

"Well," I said thoughtfully, "I think I shall go to the British Congo. From the looks of things Tilly is the only single man in the bunch, so I think I'll go over and get him."

Rewards of Athletics

By GEORGE FISHER.

When a game is played for the sheer fun of playing it; when it is played whole heartedly and with abandonment, the physical, mental and social rewards are almost beyond calculation. Among the personal rewards of faithful athletic competition there are some that are pleasant, perhaps, but incidental, and there are others that are certain. There is an intense personal satisfaction in a clean victory, and the feelings of complete joy and satisfaction that come when we know that the cheering of the crowd is in honest and heartfelt admiration, can hardly be surpassed. There are, of course, a great many individuals who, by lack of training or by disinclination, have no love for the finest things of life. They are content with blunted or discolored rewards. Nevertheless, if athletic competition is to stay in our national life we must look again to the fine, clean feeling that comes with a victory honorably and humbly won. Much the same feeling may go with a defeat honorably suffered.

The personal rewards that are more essential are the ones that are earned by hard play, painful bumps and heart-breaking defeats. But there is also a satisfaction that comes from knowing that one's habits of cool-headedness, fair play, stick-to-it-iveness and sportsmanship have stood the test of actual combat. No man knows what he is really worth until he has faced a situation that brings out of him every capacity he has. It is easy to weaken under pain and fatigue, to retaliate in anger and to slump under apparent defeat. There is no other place, save in war, where a man may learn the lesson of responding to fatigue by the will to win, of responding to pain by courage, and of responding to defeat by a determination to play hard to the bitter end. The comfort that comes to anyone when he knows that he has conquered pain, fatigue, and defeat is a feeling that he can carry over into all his later life. A healthy society cannot exist on weak, unfair and untrained individuals.

Football

FORT WAYNE CENTRAL vs. WARSAW.

On September 22 the Warsaw High football squad, under the direction of Coach Fisher, journeyed to Fort Wayne to open the season. The Tigers showed the same old fight, but could not stop the heavier and more experienced men of Central. Warsaw's only chance came in the first quarter when they recovered a fumble on Central's 20-yard line. Repeated plays and forward passes gained nothing and Fort Wayne took the ball as the quarter ended. In the second period Central scored two touchdowns on long forward passes. Both attempts for extra points were blocked. In the third quarter Central added another touchdown, but again failed to kick goal. The fourth quarter opened with the ball on Warsaw's 20-yard line. Here the Tigers held, but Central scored three points with a field goal. Soon after the kickoff Fort Wayne scored a touchdown on a forward pass. Central's kick for the extra point was wide. All of Fort Wayne's touchdowns were the result of forward passes. Warsaw played hard, but were forced to take the short end of an 18 to 0 score.

PLYMOUTH vs. WARSAW.

Plymouth met the Tigers for the first home game of the season. Plymouth scored a touchdown on the first play of the game after the kickoff, when a Plymouth back ran 55 yards for a touchdown. After that Warsaw braced and Plymouth could get no closer than the 40-yard line in the first quarter. In the second quarter the heavier Plymouth team collected two touchdowns on long runs. Try for the extra point was good in both cases. In the second half Plymouth counted two more touchdowns. Plymouth attempted to run the ball across for point after touchdown, but the Warsaw line held. The final score was Plymouth 32, Warsaw 0. Captain Sipes sustained a leg injury in the third quarter and was unable to continue play.

COLUMBIA CITY vs. WARSAW.

Columbia City met our Tigers on Oct. 6 at Beyer field. Having lost the first two games by overwhelming scores and doped to drop this contest also, the Tigers playing an inspired game threatened to give the dope its biggest upset of the season. The Tigers were leading 6 to 0 at the end of the first quarter. This touchdown was the result of a pass, Sands to Edington, after a series of line plays that had advanced the ball to Columbia City's 15-yard line. Try after touchdown failed. In the second quarter Columbia City threatened time after time, but the Warsaw line held. Just before the gun for the half, Columbia City shot a 25-yard pass that was good for a touchdown. Columbia City then added the extra point. In the second half the Columbia City backs broke loose for long runs that netted touchdowns. The final score was 27 to 6. The Tigers showed much improvement over that of the two previous games.

PERU vs. WARSAW.

On Oct. 13 the squad traveled to Peru to meet the Circus City eleven. The Tigers showed plenty of fight in this game but were defeated by the narrow margin of one point. Peru scored their touchdown in the first quarter on a pass. The try for the additional point was good. In the second quarter, Warsaw playing a splendid brand of football, carried the ball to Peru's 4-yard line only to lose it on a fumble. In the third quarter Edington intercepted a pass and made a beautiful run carrying the ball to Peru's 10-yard line. A line play netted five yards and on the next play Sands carried the ball across for a touchdown, but failed to kick goal, the ball missing the bar by about two feet. Neither team scored in the last quarter, but Warsaw threatened twice. Although the Tigers outplayed and outsmarted Peru they were forced to take the short end of a 7 to 6 score.

ROCHESTER vs. WARSAW.

Playing the brand of football our Tigers had shown in the Peru game they completely overwhelmed Rochester by a 47 to 0 score. This game was played at Beyer field Wednesday, Oct. 17. Warsaw scored their first touchdown in the first five minutes of play after a successful drive down the field. The first quarter ended with Warsaw leading 6 to 0. The Tigers displaying a dazzling and tricky offense, scored three touchdowns in the second quarter. They then added two more in the second quarter and one in the fourth. Rochester's lone score came in the fourth quarter on a long pass. Coach Fisher used the entire squad in the game allowing them to get the much needed experience. In the last quarter a Rochester halfback intercepted a pass but was brought down on Warsaw's 12-yard line. Warsaw recovered a fumble and kicked out of danger. The Rochester half broke loose but was forced out of bounds on Warsaw's 9-yard line as the game ended. Thus the Tigers won their first victory of the year.

HUNTINGTON vs. WARSAW.

The tie that has existed between Huntington and Warsaw for four years has been broken. The Tigers won 13 to 12 in the most exciting game of the year. Warsaw was the first to score. The Tigers added the extra point on a line play and were leading 7 to 0. Less than a minute later came a fumble. A Huntington player scooped up the ball and ran for a touchdown. The extra point was not added. Then more disaster. Huntington, after receiving the kickoff, marched down the field for another touchdown as the half ended. In the second half the Tigers played with more determination and spirit than they had shown in the first. Neither team scored in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter Warsaw advanced the ball to Huntington's 4-yard line, but lost the ball on a fumble. With two minutes to play Warsaw completed two forward passes which placed the ball on Huntington's five-yard line. The Tigers scored a touchdown on the next play and although they failed to add the try after goal went into the lead 13 to 12. Huntington then uncorked a pass attack that was stopped by the gun as the game ended. Although the game was played in a drizzling rain the fighting Tigers outplayed Huntington at every turn of the contest.

MONTICELLO vs. WARSAW.

On Nov. 3 the Tigers traveled to Monticello to meet the undefeated team of that city. The game was played on a wet and slippery field. These conditions greatly handicapped our fast backfield. At the end of the half Monticello was leading 12 to 0. In the fourth quarter Monticello scored two more touchdowns, but Warsaw also got the credit of making two. One of Warsaw's touchdowns was the result of an intercepted pass by Bolinger, who ran 75 yards for the touchdown. Our second touchdown was scored in the final six seconds of the game, after a steady drive down the field.

GOSHEN vs. WARSAW.

Our home-coming game was with Goshen Friday, Nov. 9. The red and white avalanche entered our fair city confident of an overwhelming victory; but Goshen and Warsaw are old rivals and Warsaw always puts up a desperate fight against the red and white. This game is only a story of how Goshen scored three touchdowns in the first quarter, how the Goshen fans referred to this game as a practice tilt, how the Tigers, aroused by this scoring, turned the tide of the battle and scored three touchdowns, how they gained a two-point lead and just as darkness was creeping over the field, how the visitors scratched victory away from "Fisher's Fightin' Tigers" in the closing minutes of the game by successfully executing several long forward passes. The Tigers fought hard and were headed for another touchdown when the game ended. This game closed our 1928 football season, but the memory of this well played and exciting contest will linger in the minds of hundreds of Warsaw fans who witnessed this thrilling game.

NORTH WEBSTER vs. WARSAW.

The Tigers, after being put through two weeks of strenuous practice by Coach Fisher, opened the net season by defeating North Webster 35 to 31. At the half Warsaw was leading 23 to 16. In the second half North Webster found the basket for many long shots, but Warsaw proved superior with their fine passing attack.

GOSHEN vs. WARSAW.

Warsaw was defeated at Goshen by the narrow margin of two points, the final score being 29 to 27. Near the end of the first half Warsaw led by nine points, but when Sands went out on personals the Warsaw defense was weakened. Toward the end of the game Goshen succeeded in closing the gap and in the final minutes of the game the Goshen back guard burnt the net with a red hot shot from center which spelled defeat for our fighting Tigers. The Goshen seconds defeated Warsaw seconds in the preliminary 22 to 12.

BREMEN vs. WARSAW.

The fighting Tigers defeated Bremen in a close guarding game by a score of 32 to 27. The Tigers were on the short end of a 17 to 12 count at the end of the half. In the second half Warsaw staged a great come-back to score 20 points while they held Bremen to 10. The second half found the Tigers passing the ball with much determination and speed. Coach Fisher used his original five men throughout. The Warsaw Reserves were defeated by Bremen Reserves 15 to 12.

KENDALLVILLE vs. WARSAW.

Coach Fisher's fightin', scrappin' Tigers staged a comeback in the final minutes of play in their game with Kendallville and won 29 to 25. Warsaw could not connect with the basket until late in the game, although they peppered it with shots, having broken through Kendallville's defense time and again. Kendallville led at the half 10 to 8. Kendallville scored most of their points on long shots, being unable to penetrate the Warsaw defense.

PERU vs. WARSAW.

The Tigers were defeated at Peru in a hard-fought game 44 to 30. Although Capt. Hillegas was back in the lineup the one and only Perry was out with a bad injury. The Tigers fought as tigers of the jungle do, but the Circus City lads were too hot, being able to burn the net from far out on the floor for counters. Peru led at the half 20-22.

LIGONIER vs. WARSAW.

Warsaw dedicated the new $70,000 armory by defeating Ligonier 57 to 24. The Tigers led by a large score throughout the game. The regulars played only about one-third of the fracas. Warsaw led at the half 30 to 10. The feature of the game was a "fluke" basket by a Ligonier man. He tossed the ball high toward the basket; the leather hit a girder, dropped to the floor, bounded high and banked perfectly into the basket for two points as the gun sounded. The Warsaw Reserves easily defeated the Ligonier Reserves 21 to 7.

ELKHART vs. WARSAW.

The Tigers added Elkhart to their list of victims the following week, winning by a score of 23 to 16. Although crippled by the loss of the mighty Bolinger, who was thrown in the hard bleachers during a practice session, the Warsaw team led by the accurate basket shooting of Sands. Warsaw completely outplayed and outclassed Elkhart. The half ended with Warsaw on the long end of a 14 to 9 count. The Warsaw Reserves defeated the Elkhart Reserves 24 to 16.

PIERCETON vs. WARSAW.

The Tigers defeated Pierceton in a slow game 29 to 25. The game was in the new Pierceton gym. A large number of enthusiastic rooters accompanied the team. Although Warsaw was off form they fought the Pierceton attack back wherever it became dangerous. At the half Warsaw led 16 to 12. Warsaw led throughout the game, but the Pierceton boys threatened time after time to take the lead.

SOUTH WHITLEY vs. WARSAW.

The Tigers had little trouble with South Whitley, winning easily by a 40 to 15 count. The first team played only about 15 minutes of the game. The half ended with Warsaw leading 15 to 8. In the preliminary game the Warsaw Reserves defeated the South Whitley Reserves 32 to 9.

COLUMBIA CITY vs. WARSAW.

The following week the Tigers lost a close and hard-fought contest to Columbia City by the score of 38 to 40. The lead alternated throughout the struggle. At the rest period Warsaw led 28 to 26. In the last minute of play the Columbia City floor guard tossed a basket from the center as the gun sounded, giving to Columbia City the victory. In the preliminary game the Warsaw Reserves defeated the Columbia City Reserves 24 to 18.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT.

The district tournament was held in the new armory on March 2 and 3. The building was found almost too small to accommodate the large crowds. The final game was played between Milford and Leesburg. Milford won and went to Fort Wayne. At Fort Wayne the South Side high school won and went to the state tournament at Indianapolis. Frankfort won the state.

The tournament in the armory was a huge success financially. The total receipts were $3,408.00, of which Warsaw's share was $706.81. This swelled our finances considerably and insured a good football season next fall. The Juniors netted a profit of $163.00 by selling pop, esquimo pies and candies. They proved themselves to be very good salesmen. The Warsaw high school band furnished music from their high seats in the south balcony. The Home Economics girls furnished meals to the players and principals at the high school building. Players were furnished rooms at the Hays hotel and the Miller House. Taking it all in all this tournament was the most successful one that has been held. Mr. Chastain managed the whole affair.

Girls' Basketball Team

The Tigeresses were not very successful this season, but they had a lot of the old fight in them. They played at Peru first and were on the short end of the score when the game finished. Two weeks later they went to Plymouth and defeated the home team 21 to 17. The following week Bourbon came over and the final score was in favor of the visitors. They ended their season with a glorious victory over Columbia City at Columbia City. Some of them will be back next year and many victories are expected.

Track

By COACH FISHER

Track is one of the cleanest sports of all. Success depends upon the individual. There is no place where the participant can fall down without it being plainly shown, and the contestant acknowledging his weakness, whatever it may be. There are no sports that develop a boy's physical body more than track athletics.

The first meet at Plymouth was a triangular meet won by Plymouth. Warsaw was second and Culver was third. Ferguson was high point man of the meet with 19 points. The boys who showed up well in this meet were Ferguson, Bunting, Thomas, Beiseigle, Perry and Butler. The next meet was a seven-way affair at Goshen. Competing teams were Culver, Goshen, Lagrange, Ligonier, Wakarusa, Nappanee and Warsaw. Goshen barely nosed out Warsaw by $1\frac{1}{2}$ points to win the meet. Had Thomas, quarter miler, not suffered tightening of the muscles and fallen with only a short distance to go, Warsaw would easily have won. He was well in front and this was the first time that he had attempted the quarter mile. Ferguson was again high point man.

The next meet was a triangular meet at Peru. Wabash, Peru and Warsaw entered. Warsaw took third, but it was not a vital defeat for both of the other cities have had good track teams for years. Rowland, Wilcox and Pierce did good work throughout the track season. After a Sectional Meet in Warsaw the season closed. Ferguson qualified for the State Meet.

The spirit for track is growing each year. This year there should have been many more out. It is thought that with the interest in this part of the State growing in track that more men will be out next year and that Warsaw will carry away many honors at the several meets.

Athletic Awards

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

Each year it has been the custom in the High School to give a reward to those members of the football and basketball teams who participated in the games of the year to such an extent that they deserve special credit. Credit should be given to any boy or girl who has the spirit to come out to practice night after night and sacrifice pleasure for the welfare of the team. And so these awards are given to those to whom honors are due. Rewards were given this year as per the following lists:

The Operetta this year was one of the best ever given by the school. A great deal of credit should go to Miss Jaques, who directed the music; to Miss Edgington, who presided at the piano, and to Miss Agar, who directed the speaking parts, and to Miss Lockwood, who coached the dancing. Miss Jessa Tallman and Chester Bolinger took the leading parts and acted their parts in a manner that reflected much credit to their theatrical ability.

We see the weeping mother who "has to ride on street cars," and the traveling salesman father. We follow the youngest sister, Patricia, through her many difficulties which include the winning of a trophy by unfair means. The elder sister, Grace, is ever afraid of "what the Caldwells will say."

However, Patricia, with the help of Mr. O'Flaherty, surmounts all her troubles and Papa Harrington asserts his rights in the house where he had so long been nobody.

Patricia, after much work, gets her Tony, and the play ends happily with even the Caldwells satisfied.

"Trip" Busty is the comical taxi driver, who doesn't mind waiting as long as the meter is ticking.

"Too much father," says Mr. King's family. "Too much family," says Mr. King. And so he leaves for South America and his rubber plantation. Adam Smith, whom he leaves to act as father in his absence, has difficulties in making the rich man's spoiled family live within the allowance Mr. King has left for them. The young man plans a little ruse to get the family to work on which they unwittingly bite. When Dr. Delamater hears that Mr. King has lost all his money in the rubber market, he withdraws rather ungracefully as Eva's suitor, but Andy, the lord, who frankly admits being a fortune hunter, becomes naturalized and buys a livery stable. Every member of the family gets a job, the two girls and Corinthia managing a chicken farm; Clinty selling snappy suits and tie-clips; Aunt Abby marrying a gouty old man who is not expected to live long; and even Uncle Horace who learns to write shorthand and sells insurance. Mr. King returns on Thanksgiving Day unexpectedly and is amazed to find the family working so hard and really enjoying it. Andy, who is Eva's fiancee, discovers that Eva and Adam are in love with each other, though they have told no one, not each one another. He leaves the field clear for Adam and all ends well.

The Debating League

DEBATE

The questions this year was: Resolved: That the United States should adopt a "hands off" policy toward Nicaragua.

Warsaw entered the Northeastern Indiana Debating League this year for the first time and went through with a perfect score, winning the pennant. We also entered the State Tournament, but were unable to keep the trophy won by the debating team last year. Twelve debates were scheduled throughout the year, Warsaw winning the decision in nine of them.

We owe much to the ability of Mr. Beauchamp as a coach. He is President of the State League, and is intensely interested in debating work. The two teams were:

THE BAND.

Our band is an organization only three years old, but it has made rapid progress under the direction of Phil Farren, of Columbia City. It now consists of high school and grade students. It is possible that in another year or so the two can be separated, and we will then have a high school band. The band offers an opportunity for those students who are musically inclined to make regular high school credits and at the same time prepare themselves for positions in the future if they desire to continue the work. It is one band which will perhaps be a continuous organization and this is a thing which heretofore in Warsaw has seemed to be impossible. Warsaw has had many good bands, beginning with the Silver Cornet Band of the seventies, led by Rush Bronson, and later by Henry Lathrope (better known as "Johnny Bull"), but none of them have ever existed longer than ten or fifteen years. Mr. Farren deserves a great deal of credit for the rapid advancement the band has made.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

Vernon Van Dyke was Warsaw's representative this year in the Discussion League Contest. His first contest was at Plymouth, where he took the district. He met five other contestants and won for Warsaw. From Plymouth he went to the state meeting and in the semi-finals carried off the honors over twelve other contestants. In the finals he won second place. A trophy was awarded to him. The school is justly proud of his record.

Daol Bauer entered the oratorical contest and won at South Bend over the famous Max Baer, who was doped to win. In the zone contest at Columbia City, Warsaw's representative lost to Paul Somers of the North Side high school of Fort Wayne. Bauer made a good record and the school is proud of his showing. Mr. Beauchamp, acting as coach, deserves a great deal of credit for the success these two young men made this year.

The Science Club

The Science Club is Mr. Nye's pet society, having founded it some years ago. The primary purpose is to foster a knowledge of Physics and Chemistry through outside reading. Several interesting meetings were held this year in Room 7 in the evening. At one of these meetings Mr. Wayne Smith presented in a most interesting way the latest facts concerning television or the transportation of pictures by wireless. The club is composed of all students who are in the physics and chemistry classes. The last meeting was held at Rader's River Bend Park in May. A weinie roast was the main feature of this event.

CALLENDER

SEPTEMBER

- 10 Oh yes, we're back to school again,
Or half of us (it looks!)
One-half the day we chit and chat,
One-half we hunt for books.
- 11 This is the time for all of the Small Freshmen to get busy;
To find their books; to find their seats.
My golly! ain't they dizzy?
- 13 The Biology stude dissected the frog,
But oh, she did it dainty,
For she was scared as scared could be,
It might have been Lon Chaney.
- 14 Ye absent-minded! The prof. had strife—
Who kissed the door and slammed his wife,
But Perry thinks the W on
His sweater stands for Wesleyan.
- 17 "Do you know what a merry-go-round looks like?"
"Why, sure," replied the miss.
The cannibal sharpened his teeth with glee,
"That has nothing to do with this! "
- 18 "Do you think you could love a guy like me?"
Said Jake, "and love me true?"
"Oh, I think I could," said Helen E.,
"If he wasn't too much like you! "
- 19 The laziest dame in all the world
Is Armadilla Frazer.
She gave her man a paper plate,
And an Easterbrook eraser.
- 20 This is no day for slickers bright,
Or flaming red bandanas.
So let us name it as the day
That we have no bananas.
- 21 The Literary Editor
Is feeling like a wreck.
He's checking o'er the calendar,
A pain is in his neck!
- 24 Whene'er you mention Braddock's name
The barbers sneer and scoff,
For when they ask him how to cut
He always answers "off! "
- 25 If banking made you very rich
Fowler would be a pauper,
But if abstaining made you so
She'd be the banker's daughter.
- 26 Another balmy day flies by
On golden eagle wings,
And those outside dont s'ee in here
The zeros that it brings.
- 27 If old today and yesterday
Were like the day before,
I don't know which one of the three
I would dislike the more.

OCTOBER

- 2 We want five good hares and three good hounds
For hare and hound chase
Van Dyke and Sterling qualify,
And take their rightful place.
- 3 The Freshmen get the fourth degree,
Excepting "Shorty" Buell,
Who calls his pa and tells him that
The rest of us are cruel.
- 4 Now, Fergy throws his crutches down,
And walks off like a gem,
But Sarah tries to stab herself,
And so she borrows them.
- 5 'Tis Freshman Class Day. Hail, the Green!
And Butler is their guest,
He poses on the top stair-step,
And skids down on his chin.
- 8 Columbia City "took us in."
The Lit. Ed. lost a dime.
But, oh, the runs our fellows made,
You just can't beat their time.
- 9 The Science Club is organized,
Like every year before.
And Sandy sells assembly seat
For cash, to David Poor.
- 12 We all filed in the study room
To see the ghost of Peru walk.
We yelled. We yipped. We hip-horrayed.
The mighty Fisher gave a talk.
- 15 The game was good, though Peru won.
Attention surely wrapped us.
The ghost of Peru walked all right,
But it walked right up and slapped us.
- 17 Rochester came awhoopin' down
To get the Tiger in a sack.
They went back home with many moans
And claw marks on their backs.
- 18 Vacation rolls around again
Today and still tomorrow.
That is a fact which surely will
Cause everything but sorrow.
- 23 The Tiger staff met out at Nye's.
Eats helped to pass the time away.
But here's the queerest thing of all—
"Chet" got to school on time today.
- 26 It's raining cats and dogs today.
It gurgles and it blubbers.
Put on your slicker and your hat,
And don't forget your rubbers.
- 31 Tiger photos are taken today
At various times and places.
Perhaps because its Hallowe'en
They'll look like pumpkin faces.

NOVEMBER

OUCH!

- 5 Though Monticello won today,
We are not feeling blue.
We'll meet them here another year,
And then what won't we do?
- 7 Operetta practice starts today,
And we begin to wonder
Will it be better than last year,
Or will it be a hummer?
- 9 Though Goshen got the largest score,
We have this much to say,
"The more you beat the Tiger
The more he likes to play."
- 13 Operetta seats for sale!
Tom and Sarah give a skit.
Charley, Tom and Bill sing songs,
And brighten things a bit.
- 14 Mary had a hard-boiled lamb
That spit LePage's wax,
And now she keeps it in the house
To seal up all the cracks.
- 16 Cows are dying from lack of sleep.
You'll think that funny, but
The mud pulls back their skin so tight
Their eyes will not go shut.
- 19 Now basketball starts on its way
With many a whoop and shout.
Come all you loyal Warsaw men,
Let's see a big bunch out.
- 20 Some guys are always bothered
With various troubles of the heart.
Nye's biggest job this year is to Keep Braddock and his girl apart.
- 21 Don Deaton is original and new.
He puts the greatest wits of time to rout.
He got a K. O. yesterday in Chem,
But in this case his K. O. meant "kicked out."
- 23 John Motto tells of Cuba
And girls with big black eyes.
I wonder if they got them
From throwing pumpkin pies?
- 26 E. Ker is feeling woozy.
She had an auto wreck.
According to her story, she
Broke nine bones in her neck.
- 29 Vacation rolls around again—
Where did I leave that Ford?
Oh, yes, beneath the apple tree
With four flat tires, oh Lord!
- 30 November, smiling bitterly,
Gathers her four long weeks
And steps into eternity,
With raindrops on her cheeks.

DECEMBER

- 5 In Citizenship, they ask you
Great questions by the ton,
And, wonder of wonders, yesterday,
Dan Perry answered one!
- 11 Don Deaton's car is dangerous
When Ethelyn Ker is in it,
For every time that they go out
They either break or dent it.
- 12 Ruth Harmon's shopping early.
Miss Shoup, her zeal retards.
She's asking all her boy friends
To send her Xmas cards.
- 13 Snow flakes drift slowly downward,
Before the day is done,
And look like spears of silver
When blown athwart the sun.
- 14 Pep session held today.
Two hips and one Hooray!
Hit 'em high! Hit 'em low!
Yea, Warsaw, Let's Go!
- 17 Visions roll 'round of Xmas,
And chicken on the plate.
The B. B. boys are getting
In trim, and looking great.
- 19 Merry Public Speaking class,
Playing with their toys,
Cutting up, and acting fresh,
Like West Ward girls and boys!
- 21 Tomorrow starts vacation,
Let's make it one of fun.
Hang up your sock for Santa Claus
And pray for him to come.
- 24 Christmas Eve! How glad we are
That once more we are here
To listen to old Santa's bells
Upon his faithful deer.
- 25 Christmas Day! The whole world smiles
And greetings come galore;
Christmas cards and everything,
And turkey evermore.
- 28 December, blustering and angry, too,
Finding its end is near,
Sweeps down in rage and adds a page
To the rest of its brief career.
- 30 December is going—going.
Ring, bells, as the New Year comes.
December is dying—dying,
To the beat of his own death-drums.
- 31 Then pay him his last last high tribute,
And stay by his side today,
Till the race is past, and he lies, at last,
By the side of the lonely way.

JANUARY

- 1 December now is over,
And goes the lonely way;
We turn a clean, unwritten page;
No school for us today.
- 2 Back to school, and the golden rule;
And we resolve today;
That we shall still with an iron will
Act in the same old way.
- 7 The cold winds blow, and lay upon
The world a snowy mat;
And Ethel Wade comes back to school
In Daddy's beaver hat.
- 8 The boys all wear suspenders;
Long hair's the vogue with girls;
It gives the boys the needed snap
When talking to the curls.
- 9 Examinations start today.
I think they are the bunk;
For every time I go to them
I flunk, and flunk, and flunk.
- 14 O! Ker and Sarah Gilworth
Present their Greensburg "Bills,"
And from the way they strut next day
They must be handsome Wills.
- 15 Jake Menzie dashes out at noon,
Bats must be in his dome.
He gets his car all polished up
To take his lady home.
- 17 Something will surely happen;
The great has come to pass;
Bob Breeding had his lesson
And was not run out of class.
- 21 Cleopatra was a beauty.
Napoleon he was bold.
But I envy Orville Goshert,
For he doesn't feel the cold.
- 22 The Chemistry class goes on a spree;
They make a big uproar;
And Kathryn Shoup is umpire once
In a brutal rubber war.
- 23 Grade cards come out today.
Don't be so gay and light.
For this is getting serious;
Red marks show up too bright.
- 25 Pep session held today;
We made it loud and hot;
The leaders had the hardest time
To dodge the B. B. shot.
- 31 Now January passes in,
Blustering wind and rain;
With usual occurrences,
And Miller late again.

FEBRUARY

- 5 Cliff Jam'son chewed six stick of gum;
His tongue he almost bit;
And when the teacher found it out;
He went and swallowed it.
- 7 The difference between English and History
Was asked Kirk by his pard.
"Why, English it is easy,
And as for History, it is hard."
- 8 Helen Hank was sleeping sound
Like the Yank in Arthur's court;
Fire truck went by, she jumped and cried—
"Wow, why was that period short!"
- 12 Now spring in all her finery,
Comes out in glad array,
To honor noble Lincoln
Upon his natal day.
- 14 Today we greet St. Valentine,
The same old words we hear;
They're mostly sweet words,
Lovey, honeybunch and dear.
- 15 Oh! what a day for studying,
Spring has a fateful lure.
Vernie Van gives dancing prom
To Queenie Oliver.
- 18 This morn we had a meeting,
Nobody came to preach;
But Hilly arose before us
And gave a little speech.
- 20 Al Turner and Jack Whiteneck
Don pants and coast and vest,
And start out for the title,
"The man who dresses best."
- 21 Tommy and Edith are absent;
This might be Tommy's deuce;
When they get back 'twill surely mean
A glaring "C" excuse.
- 22 "I did it with my hatchet,"
Said Washington by chance.
Then his father babied him;
He should have fanned his pants.
- 26 How education broadens men,
And makes the deep things plain;
Is told within a little speech
By Mr. L. Chastain.
- 27 Virginia Holbrook locked the door
And she was without power;
Her keys were all inside the thing,
She fumed for half an hour.
- 28 Now February waves adieu,
Her days were all sublime;
She adds another unit mark
To the numeral of Time.

HEY! HEY!
'T IS SPRING!

MARCH

HEAVY DEW?

- 1 Now, books are thrown aside, and
Our troubles all are gone;
March winds tingle every nerve;
The tournament is on.
- 4 Well, Milford took in Warsaw.
We're blue and glum, but say,
We have one consolation,
For Milford won the day.
- 5 Cliff Jamison in Chem. Lab.
Sat down in T2.O.
Then leaned upon the steam pipes
To dry them out just so!
- 7 We scurry out when fire gongs ring,
In spite of how it looks.
Bob Bowman, hero, rushes back
And saves all of his books.
- 8 Ambitious Mr. Beauchamp
Decides to give a play,
With Queenie as the heroine,
Don gives himself away.
- 11 Al Turner must have been out late,
He looks like heck today.
His eyelids droop and he walks with a stoop,
And he sleeps the live-long day.
- 12 Now, Esther Bales doth claim a date,
We hope its not a gag;
Let's all turn out and celebrate,
Go out and raise the flag.
- 15 Miss Simons, Nagler, basket, gum,
My! What a demonstration.
Syb. Satterlee gets woozy and
Jumps at a situation.
- 18 Track season starts with highest hopes,
And spring football, of course,
And all the boys come limping back,
Hurrah for Charley-horse.
- 28 Along comes Spring Vacation,
A bringin' April showers.
We all get out to see the birds,
And bees, and trees, and flowers.

APRIL

- 1 Syb. Satterlee gets divorce.
Vernon VanDyke quits school.
Ed Felter tries out for debate,
And hah-heh—April Fool!
- 4 Now D. Arnold is careless,
I really, truly think,
Or else, today, she wouldn't have
Taken a bath in ink!
- 10 Tickets for Junior Class Play
Are out on sale today.
And everybody's goin to
Make "whoopee" and "hey-hey."

COMMENCEMENT

- 12 B. Anglin is a boastful one,
But really she has grounds,
She says that in the last two weeks
She has lost 15 pounds.
- 15 B. Zimmer driveth out a Ford,
A Chevrolet and Pontiac;
I wonder, when she's out of gas,
If she roller skateth back?
- 16 Up to the theater tonight
To see the Junior Play;
And Butler's quite a Chappy
With his fawney "Aw, I say!"
- 18 Miss Shoup invests her money in
A Ford that's shiny new.
It has wire wheels, no squeaks or squeals,
And it's painted a sky-blue.
- 19 Track meet—Warsaw and Goshen,
With many an "also-ran."
But we get second place with
Fergy as high-point man.
- 22 Science Club has picnic,
Tests velocity of food,
While going down the neck, when
It's absolutely good.
- 25 The millenium has just been reached,
Say whatever you may.
A miracle has come to pass,
Dan Perry had his French today!
- 26 "Now all you boys behave yourselves,"
Miss Weaver said, "Be gents.
Don't throw your pennies on the floor;
Act like you had some cents."
- 30 Seniors give picture "Simba,"
It's taken in the jungle,
Where Johnson plays with lions,
Oh, Boy, if he should bungle!

MAY

- 10 Exhibit posters on the wall.
Isn't that one silly?
That's the nicest one of all,
That was done by Willy!
- 23 Oh, my, those terrible exams,
I hate their very sight.
Now, more than any other time,
I want to do what's right!
- 31 We're granted our diplomas,
And banished are our fears,
Won by dint of labor,
Through four long tedious years.
- 31 Goodbye to fair old Warsaw High,
And with the day so fair,
And with their colors over them
The Seniors pass fore'er.

HUMOR

MR. CLARENCE TILLMAN.

Warsaw was fortunate this year in numbering among its personnel one Clarence Tillman, the champion gum chewer of the world. Mr. Tillman's record is 143 sticks of gum at a single sitting and still being able to articulate freely so that any child can understand what he is trying to say. Mr. Tillman's rise to fame was quite sudden and unexpected and it is difficult to realize that whereas a few months ago he was a locally known character yet today he is known from the frozen plains of far off Siberia to the sun-kissed shores of the South Sea Islands. It is rumored that he will travel this summer in chautauqua circles and demonstrate his masticating ability before cultured audiences. "Tilly" has been the cynosure of all the eyes of the Senior girls ever since his rise to fame. Horsefeathers!!

Just across the aisle

A DOG'S DOGGEREL

I'm very fond of sausages,
Or any kind of meat;
And even just a piece of bone,
To me, is quite a treat.
I haven't got a pedigree,
And no one takes my chain
And leads me down the avenue,
Or down some quiet lane.
They treat me rough and tease me, too,
But in my kennel dark,
Just to get even with them all
I bark, and bark, and bark.
I'll crawl into some corner
Right beside a blazing log,
And dream of bones and think how glad
I am, to be a dog. —ROBERT T. DAVIS.

DESCRIPTION OF A BOY

By LYNN PIERCE.

A boy is nothing more or less than a small-sized reproduction of a man. Some boys have black eyes and some have blue eyes. The most important part of a boy is his mouth; at least he thinks so, or why else should he use it all the time?

You can always tell a boy by his walk, talk or clothing. They usually walk with about the speed of a crippled snail. Most boys do not know what a hat looks like. Wide trousers, loud ties, garterless socks, hot suspenders and large scarfs are a part of their clothing.

Below are listed some of the sure ways to tell whether the thing you see is a boy or not: If it says "Hey, Hey," "Babe," "Sugar," "Rowdy Dow," "Whoopee," "And How," or "Red Hot," it is positively a boy. If it steps on every one's feet and falls all over everything it sees, it's a boy. If it never has its lessons you need search no further for it couldn't be anything but a boy.

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.

Talk about your humor from real life. Listen to this one:

It seems that Henry Ford, Mr. Firestone, Thomas Edison and another gentleman named Channing were on an automobile trip. Something went wrong with their lights and so they stopped at a little repair station and Mr. Ford went in to buy the bulb.

"What kind of lights do you handle?" he asked.

"Edison," replied the store-keeper.

"I'll take one," said Ford. "It might interest you to know that Mr. Edison is outside in my car at the present moment.

The store-keeper said nothing.

When the party was ready to proceed, it was found that the car had a flat tire.

Ford went back into the store. "What kind of tires do you handle?" he asked.

"Firestone," the store-keeper replied.

"I'll take it," said Ford. "By the way, you might be interested to know that Mr. Firestone is outside in my car at the present moment."

The Store-keeper said nothing but went outside to help change the tire. About this time Channing, who wears long whiskers, poked his head out of the window of the car. "Howdy."

The store-keeper looked up with a sarcastic smile. "Now," he said, "If you try to tell me you are Santa Claus, I'll crown you with this wrench."

DESCRIPTION OF A FORD

By LYNN PIERCE.

A Ford consists of a piece of tin slightly bent in places and penetrated by ten of twelve thousand holes. One of these holes is for the gas tank and the rest are air holes in the radiator. There are also great piles of mechanical parts such as the fan, steering wheel, spare tire, windshield wiper, cigar lighter, taps, washers, bolts, nuts (the biggest one of which sits behind the steering wheel), and many other accessories.

The part that makes it go is called the engine and when this is missing you must always go back and look for it. The top of a Ford is not a necessary part because it always leaks anyhow.

One of the main things in being successful with a Ford is in being sure you have gas when you start out, although it is not advisable to strike a match to find out. Never misuse your Ford and it will be your friend for life, even though it does run only once out of every twenty tries.

Jack: Say, boy, did you ever hear about that school teacher who, by frugality, industry, and close application to business managed to be worth $50,000 at the age of sixty.

Johnson: No, I don't believe I ever did.

Jack: Well, you see it was this way. When this teacher was fifty-nine his rich uncle died and left him $49,990.

WHITTALL RUGS

are made from
ENDURING WOOLS

THE superb quality of Whittall Anglo-Persian rugs has its origin in those far away countries where alone may be found the long, tough fibred wools from which the finest rugs and carpets are woven.

These fine wools are inspected and selected by our own trusted buyers in the foreign markets.

On arrival at the Whittall Mills, these wools are so expertly graded and blended that the yarns are both soft and resilient, strong but pliable, lustrous yet durable.

As no one kind of wool can possibly have all these essentials of quality, each Anglo-Persian rug represents a scientific mixture of wools from sources as widely scattered as Persia, India, China, South America or Scotland.

After these blended wools are cleansed, dried, carded, drawn and combed, they are ready for spinning into triple-stranded yarn.

These are preliminary steps, before the yarns are even dyed and woven into the Whittall Rugs which grace the floors of so many American homes.

Considering the care and skill employed even in the initial steps of its production, is it any wonder that the Whittall Anglo-Persians rank high among the world's finest machine-woven rugs?

Early History of Warsaw Schools

The first school house in Warsaw was on Fort Wayne Avenue on the west side of the street, just where it joins Fort Wayne street. This was a pretty place among the native trees. It was just east of the main highway leading north to Leesburg and close to the busiest corner of the town at that time, the corner where the Christian Science church is located. This was then a hotel where the stage coaches stopped on their way to points north. The first school house was quite aristocratic, being of frame construction instead of logs, and being 18x28 feet in size. Joseph A. Funk, grandfather of our worthy druggist, taught here in 1844-45 for the princely salary of $17 a month. It is said that he was succeeded about 1848 by a man named Clark who used the old frame court house building for a school house. This was opposite north of the present Hays Hotel. About 1849 some say that a new school house was constructed on South Indiana street, probably about where McCarter's residence now is or just north of this. Mrs. H. S. Biggs remembers the laying of the corner stone for this building. Here Mr. Funk and his cousin, Emiline Yocum, taught in 1850-51. It was the first two-room school house in town. The enrollment was 140-150 people, probably all ages from seven to eighteen or twenty. J. L. D. Burnett succeeded Mr. Funk in 1855-56. In 1858 a new school house was built on Detroit street. It stood on the west side just north of the railroad which was then being built. This was a three-story rectangular building. There were two rooms on the first floor, two on the second, and one on the third, except for a small recitation room to the north. It was known as the Union School, being the first free public school in the town. It was used until 1872 when the Center Ward of our day was built.

In 1851 Mrs. Jane Dickey Cowen came to Warsaw from Logansport. She started the first real school in Warsaw in a building on South Buffalo on the east side just south of the present railroad. From here she transferred the school to a new home on South Detroit street on the east side just north of South street. Here was a beautiful spot and her school was known as Mrs. Cowen's Seminary or the Grove School. For a quarter of a century this aristocratic school was the social and educational center of the town. Several private schools were conducted about the town, one being on the southeast corner of Indiana and South streets by a Miss Bookstaver. She was a tall, angular lady and wore a scoop bonnet, also two curls in front of each ear. Her aunt, Miss Becker, assisted her. They were very dignified ladies and highly respected.

The first principal of the Union School was Prof. D. T. Johnson. He married the sister of Charlie Pyle, later a prominent druggist of Warsaw. Johnson's daughter married Hudson Beck and was the mother of Albion Beck. Johnson was assisted in the high school and grammar grades by his wife and by Nelson Richhart, who taught music. This school was not graded, the pupils being classified by age and looks. Johnson was followed by Valois Butler, who had been in charge at Waukegan, Illinois. Butler came here at the solicitation of Judge James S. Frazer, one of the staunch advocates of the free school system. He was the father of Harriet Frazer, who attended that Union School as a child. Butler remained four or five years and went to Goshen to become head of Goshen College. He died several years ago in California at the age of 94. Prof. A. H. Elwood succeeded Butler at Warsaw. The Union school house was braced above with iron rods stretching across the upper room. The rumor got abroad, (exaggerated, of course, by urchins who did not desire to go to school), that the house was unsafe. When storms would come sometimes the students would all leave the building in real or counterfeit fright. Anyhow as Reub. Williams says, the building was "pulled down" in the spring of 1872 and a good substantial building put up in its place at a cost of about $16,600.00.

The old East Ward and the present West Ward buildings were built the same year.

A RED, RED ROSE.

My luv is like a red, red rose
That's newly sprung in June;
My luv is like the melodie
That's sweetly played in tune.

As fair art thou, my bonnie lass,
So deep in luv am I;
And I will luv thee still, my dear,
Till a' the seas gang dry.

Till a' the seas gang dry, my dear,
And the rocks melt wi' the sun;
And I will luv thee still, my dear,
While all the sands o' life shall run.

—Robert Burns.

Senior Class Poem

Our class, not first to come nor last to go,
 Bids farewell to the ones we've learned to know,
 And, on its untried wings, soars to the sky,
 To fly; to fly; to try, again, to fly.

One wish: That you may understand
 The parting word and clasping hand
 Mean not "Goodby" and better gain,
 But "Au Revoir." We meet again!

One hope: That in the future years,
 Against the power that moulds and sears,
 You'll stand, eternal, waiting these,
 Who come to learn what this class knows.

One tribute: For you've always been
 The house we've solved our problems in.
 And here upon our hearts we wear
 The virtues that you branded there.

One prayer: May those you send away
 Come back to you some distant day,
 And from their bounties fine,
 Lay gifts upon thy humble shrine.

DALE B. BAUER, Senior Class "29."
